Tryon To Receive One Of The Top Awards

The Central Business District Committee of the Town of Tryon has received notice from Keep North Carolina Beautiful, Inc. that their entry for Operation Beautiful 1981 for Towns with under 5,000 population was selected to receive one of the top three awards in North Carolina. The presentation of the awards will be made at the annual meeting in Raleigh on March 29th.

A spokesman for the Town said that the Central Business District Committee and the merchants should be congratulated for their fine efforts to beautify and improve the downtown area.

Youth Soccer To Be Organized

The Landrum Community Center is in the process of organizing a Youth Soccer Organization for the Upper Spartanburg County Area. Persons interested in helping coach, referee, or helping organize are asked to attend the meeting Tuesday, February 23rd at 7:30 p.m. at the O. P. Earle School in Landrum. At this meeting a Spring Season will be discussed, along with clinics for coaching, refereeing, and for the youth. If you are not able to attend the meeting please contact the Landrum Community Center at 457-4244.

Scandinavian Art Weaving

A program on Scandinavian Art Weaving will be presented at the first monthly meeting of 1982 of the Western North Carolina Fibers/Handweavers Guild. At the meeting, to be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, February 20 at Opportunity House in Hendersonville, participants in the October, 1981 workshop on Scandinavian Art Weaving will show examples of their work. A slide program on this topic will be presented, and two members of the Guild now living in Black Mountain whose forebearers were Scandinavian will show pieces representative of the area from which their families came.

Anyone wishing further information or needing transportation should call Margaret Selover, 859-5406, or Agnes Sternberg, 859-6732. Visitors are welcome at the monthly meetings. Membership in the Guild is open to anyone interested in handweaving and its related pursuits.
