Weather Monday: high 67, low 35, hum. 33%. Tuesday was a beautiful day with lots of sunshine.

Only three months ago North Carolina was in the midst of an 18-month drought which lowered water tables and threatened crops. Now, National Weather Service officials say continued precipitation could become a problem in the upcoming planting season.

Joe Wray and Clara Rogers of Tryon will be on the Nancy Welch Show Thursday at 10:30 on Ch. 7. They will tell about the Children's Theatre Festival.

The Basketweaving Class which was to start Friday evening has been changed to Monday at 6 p.m. at Stearns School in Columbus. The instructor will be Linda Thomas.

Mrs. Vesta Joseph of Tryon and Mrs. Libby Mahler of Delray Beach, Fla. (formerly of Tryon) won the Ladies Doubles Royal Psalm Senior Spring Tennis Classic at Coral Gables, Fla. Mrs. Mahler with Capt. Mike Wolfe also won the Mixed Doubles. It was a USTA Sanctioned Tournament.

Recreation Department Sponsors Trip To Fair

Plans are being made for trips to the World's Fair by the Polk County Recreation Department. Trips open to the public are being planned as well as a special trip for senior citizens. Costs will be approximately $20 per person which will include one day ticket and transportation to and from the fair. These are one day trips but if enough interest is shown in trips of a longer nature these would also be arranged.

Anyone desiring more information or wishing to sign up for a trip may do so by calling the Recreation Department at 894-8199.

Rotary Community Chorus To Start Rehearsals March 8

The Rotary Community Chorus will start rehearsals for its Spring Concert on Monday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the Congregational Church on Melrose Ave. Two performances of the Spring Concert will be presented at the Fine Arts Center on Saturday evening May 15 and Sunday afternoon May 16.

Under the direction of Betty Brewer, this Spring Concert will emphasize the "lighter" repertoire of standard and time-tested popular and semi-classical songs in which both the Chorus and soloists will take part.

Anyone interested in singing is invited to participate in this traditional community event. All net proceeds from the Concert are used for scholarship funds for Tryon area residents.
