Edneyville Girls; Tryon Boys Win District Titles

The Edneyville girls and the Tryon boys won the I-A District Finals Tuesday night at West Henderson. The Edneyville girls beat the Tryon girls 29-21, and the Tryon boys beat Edneyville 52-49. All four teams will advance to the Regionals at Bryson City with the top two teams from the Smoky Mtn. Conference. (Hiwassee Dam and Robbinsville girls and Hayesville and Cullowhee boys)

The Tryon girls who had lost to Edneyville three times already, came out playing slowdown basketball, looking for the good shot, and it almost worked. Coach Steve Aldred's team was trailing 16-14 at halftime. The third quarter saw Edneyville making 2 points and Tryon failing to score and the Lady Yellowjackets took an 18-14 lead into the final period. The Edneyville girls outscored Tryon 11 to 7 in the 4th quarter to win 29-21.

The Tryon girls had the shots, but they wouldn't fall.

Janice Conner had her usual fine game for Edneyville and scored 16 points. Brenda Keys was high for Tryon with 8 points.

The boys game turned out to be an exciting affair. The two teams split their games during regular season play. Tryon trailed by one point after the opening period but came back to take an 18-13 lead at halftime. The Tigers led 32-27 at the end of three periods and then held on as Edneyville's Keith
