

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 1, 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

11 nov 82

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

16 Pages Today

Vol. 55 — No. 25

TRYON, N. C. 28782

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1982

Price 10c Per Copy

Files For Tryon School Board

Carroll Scoggins

Carroll Scoggins has announced that he will offer for re-election to the Tryon School Board.

A native of Tryon, Mr. Scoggins is a graduate of Tryon High School and served five years in the U. S. Navy. He was with the Town of Tryon for 20 years and is a member of the Tryon First Baptist Church. He has been active in local affairs and has served as president of the Tryon Boosters Club and as chief of the Tryon Volunteer Fire Department. He was named Fireman of the Year for 1970. He was recently presented his 25 years service pin.

He is married to the former Emily Rose Brantley and they have three children — Bob, a

Continued On Back Page

Entertain And Inform Polk Historians

The Polk County Historical Association met Tuesday, March 2 at 2:30 p.m. in the Polk County Library in Columbus.

The two young historians who presented the program held the audience spellbound.

Carol Murdock, a lovely red-haired seventh grader of Tryon gave a history of her ancestor's arrival from Scotland. Her ancestors were Murdocks, Metcalf's and Lawters who settled in the Tryon and Saluda area. Some of her ancestors helped with the Rock Masonary of the Biltmore Estate in Asheville and one traveled the "Trail of Tears."

Carol's charm, diction, and poise were outstanding.

Brenda Gibbs, an eighth grader at Polk Central was introduced by her teacher, Mrs. Janice Summers. Mrs. Summers introduced Brenda as an outstanding student and a jewel to work with, a student who goes beyond routine assignments.

Brenda gave the "Highlights of Old Timey Ways and Days" in the Sunny View area. Brenda interviewed many old timers to have gleaned so much information. She gave the history of schools, churches, foods, clothes, products, and medicines.

According to the lovely and charming Brenda, the "old Timers" could cure anything from "croup to itch" with home

Continued On Back Page

Soft Ball League Meets Wednesday

The Tri-County Softball League will meet on Wednesday, March 10th at 7 p.m. at the Tryon Town Hall. All men or women teams interested please attend. For more information call 859-6481 or 894-8402.

This is one of the artworks that will be on view at the opening reception for Two Papermakers Saturday from 8 to 10 p.m. at The Upstairs. This is Fan by Betty Harris and is handmade paper from grapevine.

Mrs. John Clay (Molly Hague) of Vestal, New York is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Nelson Leonard and other members of the Hague family. She will be joined later by her son, James A. Clay and his family of Springfield, Ohio.

Weather Wednesday: high 67, low 37, hum. 33%. Thursday morning was cloudy and it looked as if it were going to rain.

Poland's martial law authorities on Wednesday offered passports to interned Solidarity union activists and their families interested in leaving the country permanently, the official PAP news agency reported.

The N. C. Supreme Court ruled Wednesday in favor of Florida-based Nova University, saying it could operate in North Carolina without regulation by the University of North Carolina Board of Governors. It was a 4-2 decision.

Leaders of the Business Roundtable, the primary lobbying organization for big business, have formally broken with President Reagan over economic policy, calling for further reductions in federal budget deficits and a slower buildup in defense spending.

The Tryon Little Theater's production of "Petticoat Fever" is tonight and Saturday night at 8:30.

Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. is the Grand Opening at Columbus Farm and Garden

Continued On Back Page