Break-In Solved 4 Arrested

Sheriff Boyce Carswell stated Monday afternoon that the break-in of the Walter Neal house on Mountain Range Road on the night of Dec. 25th had been solved and some of the merchandise recovered. Sheriff Carswell said that four persons had been arrested, that a warrant had been taken out for another and that several others would probably be arrested.

The Neals had approximately $75,000 in merchandise stolen on Dec. 25th. Taken were a 1982 Cadillac, 1981 Toyota pick-up truck, a gun collection valued at $10,000, silver valued at $20,000, jewelry and other items.

Sheriff Carswell stated that the 1981 Toyota pick-up truck had been recovered as well as about $15,000 in silver. He said that Detective Allen Rickman and Probation Officer Walt Brand had returned from Eufaula, Ala. where the 1982 Cadillac had been located in Walter F. George Lake. The car had been abandoned and driven into the water. Sheriff Carswell said that the Barbour County Sheriff's Dept. will pull the car out and check to see what's in the trunk of the automobile.

Arrested were: Gary Pack, 20, of Rt. 1, Mill Spring, Danny Hall, 20 of Tryon, Alisa Hensley, 23, of Columbus, who have all been charged with Burglary 2nd degree. Charlie McDowell, 33, of Rt. 1, Mill Spring has been

3-Car Wreck

There was a three-car accident Monday at 12:45 p.m. on Hwy. 176 at Jervey road in Tryon. Tryon Police Officer Leon Foy said that a car stopped suddenly to turn, and James Curtis Arledge, driving a 1977 Ford slammed on his brakes to stop; Alvin Stott driving a 1979 Chevrolet slammed on his brakes and stopped in time. Dena Smith driving a 1981 Mazda and the last car, couldn't stop in time and hit the back of the Stott vehicle which in turn went into the Arledge vehicle.

Miss Smith was taken to St. Luke's hospital where she was treated and released.

About $1500 damage was done to the Mazda, about $150 damage to the Chevrolet and about $100 damage was done to the Ford.

The car that caused all the problems continued on its way according to Officer Foy.
