Prayer Breakfast

The men in the Tryon area are invited to a Prayer Breakfast Wednesday at 8 a.m. at the Congregational Church. Dr. Claude Broach is the speaker. For reservations call 859-9414 or 457-4251. The breakfast is sponsored by the Tryon Kiwanis Club.

Merit Finalist

Miss Heather Blomeley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Blomeley of Columbus, is one of 15,000 finalists competing for 5,000 Merit Scholarship Awards.

Heather, a senior at Mt. Pisgah Academy, Candler, is completing her high-school requirements in three years rather than four, with a cumulative GPA of 3.96. She has been voted "Most Likely to Succeed" by the student body.

Merit Scholarship nominees are selected on the basis of, academic achievement; personal qualities; their scores on tests administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation; and an application which includes a self-description, giving insight into personal goals and describing ideals and accomplishments.

Finalists represent the top half of the top one per cent of the nation's high-school seniors.

Norvin Clontz Wins Spelling Bee

Norvin Clontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Clontz of Tryon won the Tryon Elementary School Spelling Bee Thursday morning in the school auditorium.

The runner-up was Becky Michel, daughter of A. K. Michel. Norvin will go to Charlotte for the 28th annual Regional Spelling Bee on April 23rd.

Fire

The Tryon Volunteer Fire Department was called to a woods fire Wednesday afternoon at 12:45 near the intersection of Carolina Drive and Hogback Mtn. Road. The State road maintenance men were cutting down some small trees along the road when one of the trees fell across a power line. This sent sparks everywhere and some of the sparks caught the leaves and grass on fire. The Town's water truck was used and it went along the road, sending a spray of water over the burning area and put it out quickly.

Youth Day

St. Luke's CME Church of Tryon will observe annual Youth Day, Sunday, March 14th at 3 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Johnny Owens of Cleveland Chapel Baptist Church of Spartanburg.

The public is invited.

Weather Wednesday: high 68, low 35, hum. 25%. Friday morning was more of the same.
