Win First Place

The Central Business District Committee of Tryon, won first place in the villages and towns up to 5,000 population category Monday at the N. C. Beautiful Contest Awards luncheon held in Raleigh.

Reagan Ammons, Polk County Extension Agent, attended the meeting with Charles Lott, Tryon Town Manager. Mr. Ammons presented the plaque for first place to the Central District Committee, co-chairmen R. B. Scruggs and Gen. Harry Evans along with Mayor Ken Tucker and former Councilman Charles Lankford on Tuesday at the Tryon Kiwanis Club meeting at the Pacolet Plantation. Shown above holding the plaque are: (left to right) R. B. Scruggs, Ken Tucker, Charles Lankford and Harry Evans.

4-H Funfest Winners

Last Saturday the 4-H Funfest Talent Show was held at the Tryon Fine Arts Center. All of the talent was exceptionally good, and it involved children from kindergarten to high school.

There was quite a variety of acts with everything from cloggers and tap dancers to vocal solos and pantomime. All of the kids involved were winners in preliminary shows, however, here are the top finishers from Saturday's Funfest.

In the K-4 category: 2nd place: Tina Price and Amanda Owensby for their baton routine to "Funkytown"; 1st. place: Mickey and Joey Jackson, vocal duo — "The Duke Boys"; Overall Weather Tuesday: high 72, low 41, hum. 39%. Rain at 7 a.m. Wednesday was .01.

Four Army paratroopers were killed and at least 71 were injured Tuesday when they jumped through gusty desert winds at Fort Irwin, Calif. About 2,000 soldiers participated in the jump, one of the largest parachute exercises ever held in the United States.

Bell Federal Savings and Loan Association of Inman, which also has offices in Spartanburg and Chesnee will become part of American Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greenville within a few weeks. The merger is contingent on final approval by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

Tryon Mayor Ken Tucker has expressed appreciation to all the participants in the Clean-Up week, especially the Mayor's Advisory Task Force, Kiwanis Club, Working to Travel, Inc., the students and staff at Tryon Elementary School and Tryon High School, the North Carolina Division of Highways, the Tryon Garden Club, and the Tryon/Polk County Board of Realtors.
