Mickey Mouse "Best Of Show"

Over 400 visitors attended THERMALPEX, the first stamp show to be offered by the Thermal Belt Stamp Club, over the weekend at the Tryon High School. The diversity of the topics and the variety of the exhibits provided an interesting show for all attendees.

By popular vote, Mrs. Robert Reynold's "Mickey Mouse on Covers" won "best of show" while "Flower Garden" by Mrs. Norman Gillis was second. Honorable Mention was awarded to Mack Gillis, Albert Jaeger, Willard Parsons and Nick Willis. Representatives of the Carolina Federation of Stamp Clubs from Raleigh, Asheville and Hendersonville, North Carolina as well as Greenville, Spartanburg and Columbia, South Carolina praised the originality and creativity of the exhibits.

Bill Barham, Tryon postmaster and Tony Gilbert, Regional Philatelic Sales Officer from Asheville, were kept busy hand stamping the unique postmark of the horseshoe and "Thermaplex Sta. Tryon, N.C. 28782" for the club's cacheted envelopes. Also, they offered a variety of U. S. stamps for sale which are made especially available at authorized exhibitions such as this.
