The risk of a military confrontation over the Falkland Islands seemed to recede Sunday as Argentina drew in its fleet and Britain signaled its readiness to consider all possibilities for a peaceful settlement.

Craig Stadler beat Don Pohl in the first hole of sudden death to win the Masters in Augusta on Sunday.

Robert Scruggs, president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce deserves lots of credit for a very successful Tryon Day last Saturday. The "Best Friend of Charleston" had 1583 passengers; 198 people went on the tours of the Gillette Woods and Hunting Country areas; over 200 people attended the Puppet Show. Others went to "Tryon Early On" at the Fine Arts Center, took in the Crafts and Arts exhibition, listened to the Tryon School Band and to the Blue Grass Band and watched the Polk County Cloggers. There was more going on than most of us could take in. The Street Dance at the Depot

House Burns

The Landrum Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call Monday at 7:45 a.m. at the home of Clifford Parker off Landrum Mills Road. The house was destroyed by fire.

Chase Ends In Polk County

The Landrum Police chased a motorist over the back roads and finally captured the suspect when his vehicle wrecked in the "Browntown" area at Pea Ridge. Arrested was Philip Edward Burgess of Rt. 1, Columbus who was charged by the Landrum Police with Driving Under the Influence and failing to stop for Police Vehicle.

Landrum Police Chief Ayers stated that the Landrum Policeman tried to stop the Burgess vehicle when it ran a stop sign at Bomar Ave. and Hwy. 14. The Landrum Police car chased the vehicle out Prince Road into Polk County and then over back roads until the car wrecked.

Man Shot

The Landrum Rescue Squad took Junior Pruitt of Shamrock Street, Landrum to St. Luke's Hospital Saturday about 11:30 p.m. Mr. Pruitt was shot in the upper right shoulder and according to Landrum Police Officer Rick Blackwell the wound was self inflicted. Mr. Pruitt was in satisfactory condition at St. Luke's Hospital.

Engaged

Miss Karen Elizabeth Fisher Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dean Fisher of Columbus, North Carolina have announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen Elizabeth of Franklin, Virginia to Donald Wade Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Allen of Murfreesboro, North Carolina.

Miss Fisher, a graduate of the University of North Carolina — Chapel Hill School of Pharmacy, is a staff pharmacist at Southampton Memorial Hospital in Franklin, Virginia.

Mr. Allen, also a graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, is Pharmacist-Manager of Gates County Pharmacy in Gatesville, North Carolina.

A June 19th wedding is planned.

Spring Fling

More plans are materilizing for the April 24 Spring Fling at Mill Spring Elementary School. All day recreation is planned by the Recreation Department. Events to be held include a baseball throw, horseshoes, a free throw contest, sack races, three legged races, football toss, a tobacco spitting contest and frisbee golf. Some of these might seem a bit unusual but should be interesting and fun for all ages.

A bit different format than usual will be used to enhance participation. Except for horse shoe competition participants may sign up and compete in all events at any time during the day. Best times and distances in each event will then be announced at day's end. Horseshoe competition will begin at 1:30 with registration starting at 9 a.m.

For all those interested in watching top notch checker competition the finals of the Polk County Checker Tournament will be played during the day.

All events will be held on the schoolground.

Mr. and Mrs. Philo Higley of New York City have arrived for a stay in Tryon in their Gillette Woods home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Millikin and son, Mathew, have returned to Newton after visiting Mr. Millikin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Millikin in Tryon.
