

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 1. 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

11 NOV 9 1982

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
108 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 780
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-380)

Phone 859-9151

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

20 Pages Today

Vol. 55 — No. 61

TRYON, N. C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1982

Price 10c Per Copy

Weather Monday: high 79, low 54, hum. 40%, rain 1.50.

President Reagan said Monday he would be "willing to look at additional revenue sources" in the search for a budget compromise, but not if they mean retreating from the income tax cuts already scheduled for this year and next.

British marines seized a second harbor from defiant Argentine holdouts Monday to complete the recapture of frigid and desolate South Georgia Island, British officials reported.

A drunken policeman in Seoul, South Korea went berserk and used carbines and hand grenades to kill 62 and wound about 20 before taking his own life early Tuesday.

The N. C. General Assembly convened in special session Monday night and agreed to once again revise House and Senate district lines in hopes of gaining federal approval.

Lightning set the home of R. Haywood Hannon on fire Monday night. The lightning came in the house through a floor plug in the downstairs and set a bed on fire. There was a lot of smoke, but the fire was contained

Continued On Back Page

Race Saturday At 2 P.M.

Clyde Dedmon, promoter of races in the area will have a race Saturday at Spartanburg County Fair Grounds at 2 p.m.

There will be a new division this year with 6-cylinder drivers. Any driver wishing to enter should be at the fair ground in time to get their car registered at no entry fee.

Three classes will be featured which are Street Stock, Hobby (6-cylinder), and Limited Sportsman. Local drivers who will be driving are Rick Gosnell, Leroy Maybry, Merle Howard and Danny Peeler. Other drivers familiar with the area will be Lee McCallister, Bruce Bishop and Billy Scott to name a few. Anyone with questions should contact Rick Gosnell.

Heart Fund Run A Success

J. Alan Peoples, president of the Polk County Chamber of Commerce reports that the Heart Fun Run held last Saturday at the Mill Spring School was a big success. Mr. Peoples said that due to a number of persons and organizations who gave freely of their time and talents, $200 was raised for the Heart Fund.

Buys Home

Mrs. Clyde Rapp has purchased the former Lou Hodell home on Mimosa Lane.

The sale was through Tryon Properties and C. Allan Pruette & Associates.

AFS Students To Speak To Rotary

The Tryon Rotary Club will meet at 12:30 p.m. Monday at the Hearthstone Inn. The program will be presented by Mrs. R. Shaw Pettigrew, teacher at Polk Central High School.

Participating will be three students from abroad living and studying in the area under the auspices of the American Field Service student exchange program. Speaking will be Pedro Coelho of Portugal who is attending Tryon High School and is a guest of the Tegwan Buckner family; Simon Dall of Denmark, guest of the Ted Owens family and Tamsin Fuad of Australia, guest of the Alan Rickman family. Simon and Tamsin are attending Polk Central High School.

The AFS program has been active in Polk County since the first visiting student came to Polk Central in 1978. Tryon High School had its first visiting student in 1979. To date twenty local students have gone abroad and fifteen foreign students have visited here.

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mills of Rt. 3, Campobello, are parents of a son, John Rosengren, born April 24th at St. Luke's Hospital.

Paternal grandparents are Mrs. Ivey Mills Stepp of Mill Spring and the late R. S. Mills.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Rosengren, Jr. of Mesa, Ariz.

TLT Box Office Opens Monday

Critics have said of Tennessee Williams' "A Streetcar Named Desire": "Powerful and violent. It continues to thrill audiences all over the world. 'Streetcar' packs an impact that will leave you emotionally limp."

This is the alternately turbulent and tender drama which played to capacity houses on Broadway for two solid years, shattered attendance records on tour in this country, and repeated its success abroad in London, Paris, Rome and Vienna.

The Tryon Little Theater production of Williams' play, directed by Lee Miller, will be at the Tryon Fine Arts Center May 6, 7 and 8 at 8:30 p.m. The box office will be open Monday through Friday, May 3-7 from 10 noon and 2-4 p.m. telephone reservations are accepted: 859-5179.

Yellow Jessamine Garden Club

The Yellow Jessamine Garden Club will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Melinda Greene at 7:30. Mrs. Diana Christopher will continue leading the ladies in basket making. Members recently participated in Landrums Clean-up Week and the tree and flowers planting along E. Rutherford.

The Music Makers are playing tonight at the Hendersonville Country Club for the Four Season's Dinner Dance.