Car Hits Tryon High School

A car driven by Angela Dee Marshall of West Columbia, S.C. hit the Tryon High School Wednesday at 1 a.m. According to Tryon Policeman Nathan Shields, the driver said that she lost control and then apparently hit the excellerator instead of the brakes and the car hit the building and went into the girls restroom.

Ms. Marshall received a cut lower lip and had her teeth loosened. Officer Shields said that Ms. Marshall had driven up here so that she could appear in court Wed. to pay a speeding ticket she had received earlier. She was charged with DUI. Ms. Marshall was taken to St. Luke's Hospital where she was treated and released.

She had as a passenger Ms. Sarah Hancock of Chamblee, S.C. who came along just for the ride.

The amount of damage done to the school building had not been determined at press time according to Supt. Vernon Dusenbury.
