Yesterday there was a Drunk Driving Rodeo at Tryon High School. Present were the N. C. Highway Patrol, Rutherford-Polk Mental Health, Tryon Community Schools, Tryon Police and the Polk County Sheriff's Dept. The safety officer for the N. C. Highway Patrol Jeter Wilds was also present. The rodeo demonstrated how alcohol will affect your driving and how the breatholizer shows the amount of alcohol you have consumed. Also present were TV cameras from WLOS-TV and WSPA-TV.

Hopes rise that a peaceful solution may be worked out between Argentina and Britain over the Falklands as both sides are faced with loss of life and ships.

Today is the Appalachian Conference Tennis Tournament at Harmon Field.

Saturday from 5 p.m. until, the Youth of Pea Ridge Baptist Church are having a Barbecue Rib Supper at Mill Spring School.

Sunday at 3 p.m. Eliot Wigginton will speak at the
