Britain and Argentina, without ruling out negotiations, accused each other Thursday of using peace proposals to camouflage aggression, and failed to agree on a cease-fire in the Falkland Islands conflict.

President Reagan, declaring he wants to "restore a freedom our Constitution was always meant to protect", called Thursday for an amendment to allow voluntary group prayer in public schools.

Tryon Federal, along with all the savings and loans in North Carolina, is sponsoring a campaign to "Save the American Dream" of homeownership. Their ad today is built around the spontaneous reception of the citizens of Polk County. You are invited to read this ad and respond. Public response will trigger our legislators into some action that will bring relief to the present housing situation and in doing so, restore the unemployed to their jobs and stimulate business.
