Democrat Men Hear Candidates

Congressman Jamie Clarke and U.S. Senate Candidate "Bo" Thomas were among the many speakers at the last Democrat Men's Club Meeting, Saturday, January 27th, at 8:30 a.m. at the Democratic Headquarters. Other speakers were Loto Greenlee and Zoro Guice, judicial candidates, Sheriff Boyce Carswell and Donald Splawn, who asked for support in their candidacies for sheriff, J. Clarke Plexico, running for NC Senate, and Alan Leonard.

With more than two dozen in attendance at the membership meeting, in addition to the renewals of membership, there were five members welcomed to the club.

Members were informed of the precinct meetings to be held at 7 p.m., March 8th and the county convention at noon, April 21st. — Bill Holcomb, Secretary Democrat Men's Club

Weeders Meet

The Weeders Garden Club met Jan. 3rd with Mrs. J. L. Petty in Landrum. Discussions were held on birds and horticulture hints for January. The spring meeting of the East Piedmont District Garden Clubs of S.C. will be held March 13th at Brannons Restaurant with the Garden Clubs of Landrum serving as hostess clubs.

The February meeting will be held Feb. 7th with Mrs. A. J. Stone.

File For Office

A number of candidates filed at the last minute Monday morning at the Polk County of Elections. The Republicans will have a primary for County Commissioner with incumbent Ken Faulkner, Tim McCormack, Bill Crowell and Joan Nash competing for the three spots. The Democrats have Carson Deck, Sue Cochran and incumbent Rachel Ramsey.

In the Sheriff's ace, incumbent Boyce Carswell and Don Splawn will compete in the Democrat Primary while the Republicans failed to have a candidate. In the Clerk of Court race, Judy P. Arledge, Democrat incumbent was the only candidate to file and will not have an opponent in the primary or general election.

In the non-partisan school board race, Geoffrey Balkam in Green Creek and Ann P. Whitmire in Cooper Gap will not have opposition. In Tryon Township, incumbent Georgia Pack and Bill McKaig have filed for the seat and in Columbus Township incumbent Phillip Fischer and Phillip Feagan have filed for the single seat.

Landrum Garden Club

The Landrum Garden Club will meet Thurs. Feb. 8 at 3 p.m. at the home of Kay Willard. The program will be presented by Helen Williams on the subject of conservation.
