Local Shooters Sweep N.C. Junior Olympics

Three members of the Polk County Junior Gun Club rifle team took gold, silver and bronze medals at the 1990 N.C. Junior Olympic Rifle Championship in Charlotte. Robin McCall was the gold medalist. Danny Ledford took the silver. Brent Edwards won the bronze. They also took the team championship. As the top girl and boy shooters, Robin and Danny will travel to Colorado Springs, Colorado for the National Junior Olympic Championships where they will compete against shooters from all over the nation at the U.S. Olympic Training Center. Robin will represent North Carolina at this event for the fifth time. This is Danny's first trip but Brent was boy's champion last year. Polk County Junior Gun Club has won the team championship the last three years.

This season the team has taken trophies at Wofford College and Charlotte. Robin, Danny and Brent have won individual awards at Wofford, Charlotte and Union, South Carolina. All three shooters are students at Tryon High School. — Reporter
