What Rhymes With Trash? That's Right — Cash!

It's just a few days until our litter contest begins! This is a wonderful opportunity to get involved in something worthwhile, and win a cash prize.

"I'm sure you all have spring fever as I do," said Lois Hoie, Litter Contest Chairman. Spring means so many things: being able to enjoy the beauty which surrounds us, watching the trees turn green, seeing the azaleas bloom, hearing the birds sing, planting gardens, and perhaps for some, driving through the countryside with the top down. Nothing can spoil all of this more than the sight of beer bottles, hamburger wrappers, plastic foam containers, and various other sundry items tossed out of car windows by the uncaring.

HELP US KEEP POLK COUNTY CLEAN. Please enter our contest and be a part of those who care. Pick up your entry blank at any of our local post offices or the Agricultural Extension Center in Columbus. When you pick up your entry blank, please be certain to call the Agricultural Extension Office, 894-8218, then fill it out, send it in and get involved. Let's make this 1990 LITTER — FREE POLK COUNTY the best contest ever. — Reporter

To Welcome Long Family

The congregation of Landrum First Baptist Church extends an invitation to the community to celebrate the installation of the Rev. Jerry Long as our pastor on April 1, at 7 p.m. Following the Pastor Installation, a reception will be held in the Fellowship hall to welcome the Long family to Landrum.

Mr. Long was called by First Baptist Church to be pastor on February 25. He began his ministry on March 26.

A native of Greenville, S.C., Mr. Long served as Associate Pastor of Shandon Baptist Church in Columbia, S.C. at the time of his call to Landrum. He had earlier served the Shandon Church as Minister of Youth and Recreation. Prior to his ministry at Shandon, he was minister of Youth and College in Monroe.

Library Hosting Used Book Sale

Friends of the Polk County Public Library are preparing for a used book sale to be used May 11 and 12 on the grounds of the library in Columbus. Committees have been appointed and are already sorting and pricing books. Bernie Harroun, Chairperson of the event, encourages interested readers to attend. The slogan for the sale is, he says, "Any book you haven't read is a new book." Barbara Brewer, Library Director, adds, "Books of all kinds will be on sale. Regardless of tastes, there will be something for everyone." Proceeds from the sale will be used for various projects in support of the library. — Reporter
