Weather Wednesday: high 63, low 35, hum. 82%. At 7 a.m. Thursday the precipitation was .26 and it continued to rain.

The British customs officials said they foiled an attempt on Wednesday to supply Iraq with 40 U.S. made devices for triggering nuclear explosions, and that three people were charged. U.S. and British investigators worked on the case for 18 months.

Lithuania's government backed down Wednesday on one of its hottest points of conflict with the Kremlin, a plan to establish its own border guard, saying it wanted to avoid clashes with Soviet troops.

Remember to move your clocks up Sunday as Daylight Savings Time goes into effect. When you go to bed Saturday night remember to move the clock forward. If it is 10 p.m. move the clock to 11 p.m.

The redbuds, dogwoods, azaleas and other spring flowering plants have been beautiful. Everything seems to be 2 to 3 weeks ahead of normal. It is unusual to have the redbuds and dogwoods in bloom at the same time. Usually the redbuds are gone before the dogwoods

Community Concert

The Spring Concert produced annually by the Tryon Community Chorus is not only an attempt to provide a superior musical offering for a discriminating audience.

This is a cooperative effort to contribute to the financial support for the Rotary Scholarships Foundation, which has benefited local high school graduates for many years.

The 1989 awardees were Freda Satterfield from Tryon High School, David Seifert from Landrum High School and Andrew Lynch from Polk Central High School.

Currently in rehearsal, The Glory Days of Broadway, includes in its cast six young men and women from Polk County, shown in the picture above: Jason Parris, Marty Chlebenski, Mary Jo Palumbo, Velva Brown, Katie Malone, and Keisha Parris.

Singers will still be welcomed — tenors especially.

Time To 'Tee It Up'

Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Tom Kite, Steve Ballesteros and a host of their golfing friends are teeing up on April 5th.

With Sam White as your host, you can watch opening day at "The Masters" on cable TV (USA channel 19) in the Mural Room at the Tryon Fine Arts Center, Thursday, April 5th from 4 to 6 p.m.

We have the TV, the USA cable hook-up, soft chairs (?), popcorn and Coke. Augusta offers the golf, azaleas, dogwoods, and rhododendrons.

Y'all come, relax and enjoy. No spikes please! — TFAC Reporter, Sam White.

Note: Due to Mural Room conflict, we can't host the second round of play on Friday, April 6. You can watch the third and final rounds on your NBC station.

Support Group

Codependents/ACA Support Group meets every Monday at 6 p.m. at Tryon Presbyterian Church on Harmon Field Road.
