Habitat Store To Move From Barn Door

Habitat Resale Store manager Chuck Doster announced that Habitat's Barn Door Theater location on Rutherford St. in downtown Landrum will be vacated by Habitat by April 11.

"We will be out in time for the Foothills Humane Society to hold their auction on April 14," Doster said. He indicated that the Habitat Resale Store operation will be consolidated at the original Habitat store location on N. Trade St. in Landrum.

He said that Habitat expects to expand its space in the N. Trade St. building so as to provide more room for the furniture, appliances, carpets and other household items being constantly donated to Habitat. He indicated that a clearance sale will be held at the Barn Door location April 4 through April 7.

All profits made by the Habitat Resale Store from sales of donated items are turned over to Thermal Belt Habitat for Humanity where they are used to help build homes for needy working families. — Reporter
