Weather Monday: high 68, low 32, hum. 45%. Tuesday at 7 a.m. there was a trace of precipitation.

The state has told the public schools to make about $20 million in cuts in the rest of the fiscal year and the order couldn't have come at a worse time, officials said. Bob Etheridge, state Superintendent of Public Instruction said that would be difficult for schools this late in the year. Most systems already have spent their money except for funds earmarked for summer school, salaries and staff training.

Four years after moving its production to New York City, "Mother Earth News" has "let go" the 15 remaining members of its editorial staff in Hendersonville.

The South's environmental health is both less protected and worse than that of any other region, according to a study released Monday by the Institute of Southern Studies.

Don Mattingly of the New York Yankees became the highest-paid player in baseball history Monday when he agreed to a $19.3 million, five-year contract extension through the 1995
