Weather Monday: high 78, low 48, hum. 48%. The weather is perfect.

A ban on school dances in a small Missouri town survived Supreme Court review Monday. Without comment, the court refused to hear a challenge by a group of students and their parents in Purdy, Mo.

We have had a number of readers call or write about the bird that resembled a sparrow but has a red head. Everyone says that it is a Finch. Names are "Purple Finch" sometimes known as Red Finch, also House Finch. Simon Thompson says that the House Finch is very common in this area now.

Some of our retirees who enjoy amateur sports would enjoy seeing the local high school teams in action. If it is baseball, softball, track or tennis, the competition is spirited and the sportsmanship is good. Landrum and Polk County have some excellent high school teams.

The Polk County Memorial Post No. 250 American Legion will host a free chicken supper for current members and guests tonight at 7 p.m.

Tryon May Begin Curbside Recycling

There is a "strong likelihood" that Tryon will begin a curbside recycling program of its own this year, Town Manager Barry G. Richards said Tuesday.

For months now, town and Polk County officials have been trying to work out an agreement whereby the town would participate in the county's recycling program.

Polk County Solid Waste Manager David Draughn designed a program which would have each town set up a recycling site. But Tryon wanted $1 per mile, round trip, for delivering the recycled materials from its site to the county's collection point at the landfill.

On Monday, the Polk County Board of Commissioners decided simply to table Tryon's request and wait and see what Tryon
