Weather Monday: high 81, low 49, hum. 60%.

Lithuania's only refinery closed Monday when the Kremlin's economic blockade dried up oil supplies, and the prime minister said the defiant republic might try to sell gold to import fuel.

In a surprising concession, West Germany said it would exchange each virtually worthless East German mark paid to workers and pensioners for one strong West German mark.

Spartan Food Systems moved into their new corporate headquarters in downtown Spartanburg Monday. The 17-story building is replacing their cramped quarters on I-85.

Les Robinson of East Tennessee State has been named the basketball coach at N.C. State. Robinson is a 1965 graduate and former Wolfpack player and assistant coach. He replaces Jim Valvano.

The Polk County Wolverine golf team won a six team match Monday afternoon at Red Fox Country Club with 322. Pisgah was second with 333 followed by Tuscola 342. W. Henderson 366.

Story Hour

Thursday, April 26th is a special film day for the Landrum Branch Story Hour. Three films will be shown: "Apple Worm," "Daisy," and "Caterpillar and the Pollwog."

Story Hour for the younger children begins at 10 a.m. and for the older children at 4:30 p.m.

Come and enjoy the movies! — Reporter.

"Passport to the Promised Land"

The theme of the Vacation Bible School, sponsored by Tryon Presbyterian Church, is a simulated tour of the Holy Land as it was when Christ walked and taught in that locale. All children, including visiting grandchildren, between the ages of two through the sixth grade, are welcome to attend.

Vacation Bible School will be held June 11 to 15 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Pictures for the children's "passports" will be taken at the Strawberry Festival on May 11 when preregistration begins, or parents and grandparents may call the church office to register, 895-6683.

The chief tour guides, Ruth Sutherin and Martha Eidam, have planned games, crafts, costumes and snacks that demonstrate the culture of the Holy Land in ancient times. All adult leaders will be in costume and children are urged to dress as "typical tourists."

A New Arrival
