The weekend weather: Friday, high 75, low 40, hum. 79 percent. Saturday, high 80, low 52, hum. 74 percent. Sunday, high 78, low 62, hum. 62 percent.

President Bush's Budget Director Richard G. Darman said Sunday that the Bush administration would consider tax hikes only in exchange for a line-item veto, a measure which would give the president more direct control to cut spending.

Two American servicemen were killed near a Philippines airbase Sunday on the eve of talks on extending the lease of U.S. Military bases there.

U.S. and Philippine officials say the United States may have to give up at least one of its two huge bases over the next ten years due to increasing opposition.

The Communist Party of the Philippines and its military wing, the New People's Army, have threatened attacks on Americans to protest the U.S. military presence.

The U.S. Supreme Court was to take up the issue of flag-burning Monday. The court will hear arguments on a new federal law that makes flag desecration a

Saluda Adopts Water Policy

Saluda City council adopted a policy Tuesday that explains the conditions under which the city will provide water and sewer services and street maintenance for residents of Saluda subdivisions.

"We have never had an ordinance of this nature," Mayor Nolan Pace said Friday. "Of course, we are anticipating some growth, and we'd like to have orderly growth and place the responsibility where it should be."

The 1½-page policy, which went into effect immediately after its adoption, states that Saluda will provide water and sewer services to subdivisions within its city limits when it is "within the best interest of the city and the property owners."

The policy also states that the city will maintain water and sewer systems within city subdivision developer or systems are built to standards set by the city.

The city will not agree to maintain any subdivision's water or sewer system that is not complete, not in working order and not built to the city's standards, the policy states.

Likewise, the city will not agree to maintain any city subdivision's streets unless the subdivision's entire street system is established, paved and built to the city's standards.

When a developer or property owners within a Saluda
