The weather Wednesday: high 73, low 46, hum. 60 percent. The Thermal Belt was working Wednesday.

The people of the U.S.S.R. are going to get a chance to vote — really vote — in the nation's first national referendum.

They must decide whether or not to shift the nation to a market economy, a move which would cost tens of millions of jobs, double food prices and eventually allow private ownership of most businesses.

The average Western North Carolina retiree household spends $16,971 a year on routine items, a study by the UNC-Asheville Center for Creative Retirement found. That's before major purchases, such as homes, appliances and vehicles.

"It (attracting retirees) is a nice addition to the economy which you don't have to do a lot for," said Bill Haas, the UNCA sociologist who conducted the study.

With an industrial plant, for instance, Haas said a community must spend tax dollars to provide roads, sewer and water lines and other utilities.

Polk County Honors Its Heros

Monday, May 28, Memorial Day, features Polk County High School Band and N.C. Senator Bob Carpenter of the 29th Senatorial District.

The Columbus Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW Post 9116) announced it's plan for this Memorial Day at the Polk Memorial Cemetery located on Hwy. 108 just opposite the Western Steer Restaurant. The ceremony will commemorate those who served their Country in time of need — those who made the supreme sacrifice, those permanently hospitalized, and those who, while somewhat mobile, carry the scars and disabilities of battle service.

The Polk Central High School Band will begin the ceremony at 11 a.m. on Monday by rendering
