The box office is open and tickets are selling fast for this year's Tryon Youth Center production of "Little Mary Sunshine." The show opens Thursday night.

Clay Spencer of Landrum woke up to one view out his window Friday morning, and by nightfall had exchanged it for another entirely.

Spencer and workers from a Rock Hill, S.C. house-moving company spent the day Friday picking the house up and then inching it down the road to a new location, which reportedly has a spectacular view of Hogback mountain.

The Hendersonville Times-News editorial writers on Friday congratulated the jury in the Polk County Board of Education vs. Board of County Commissioners trial.

"The jury.... did the right thing

On Dean's List

Stuart Adcock of Columbus and Charles Pados of Tryon were named to the dean's list at Sherman College of Straight Chiropractic for the spring 1990 trimester.

To be named to the dean's list a student must have maintained a grade point average of at least 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.

Lot Purchased

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bagwell of Columbia, South Carolina have purchased a lot on West Lake Shore Drive at Lake Lanier from Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leonard of Asheville, North Carolina. The transaction was handled by Allan Pruette of Century 21 Pruette and Associates, Inc.

Youth Center Musical

Theatergoers in Tryon have the opportunity to enjoy one of the most successful off-Broadway stage shows "Little Mary Sunshine." It played to packed houses for almost three years. Billed as "a musical about an old operetta" it is a musical spoof of old-time favorites like "Rose Marie" and "Naughty Marietta."

Deliberately corny songs and naive situations poke fun at the cliches of the innocent musicals of yesterday. There are 24 songs including thundering choruses, schmaltzy waltzes and liting duets — all kidding and all in fun. The plot offers a little bit of everything: Colorado Rangers, a stalwart Captain, a lovely Mary, a chorus of simpering school girls and a villainous Indian.

The young heroes, seen above, are Megan Wallace of Landrum and Drew Brannon of Tryon. Both are students at Spartanburg
