Two people were seriously injured Thursday evening when an automobile hit the entrance to George's Restaurant in Tryon. According to eye witnesses the car sounded as if the accelerator stuck and plowed into the restaurant. Mr. Cecil got out of his car, got back into his vehicle and put it into reverse. Again the car sounded as if the accelerator was stuck. The car lurched backward, hit a car owned by Mr. and Mrs. Theo Kerhulas which was parked directly behind him. This knocked the Kerhulas car into the side of the Tryon Auto Parts building. This caused a gas line to break and gas went into the Car Parts building and into
