At Leadership School

Phillip Placak

Phillip Placak, a rising ninth grader at Tryon High School, is presently attending the N.C. Legislators' School for Youth Leadership Development at Western Carolina University. Phillip was nominated by his teachers and principal at the Tryon Middle School and his application was one of 120 accepted for the three week program.

While at the school Phillip will participate in various classes specially designed to help N.C.'s future leaders develop important skills in communication, writing and awareness.

Special events will also include hikes, field trips and whitewater rafting.

Phillip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Placak and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Placak.

Hairline Fracture

Aaron, 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Greg R. Giese (Laura Kerhulas) of Dayton, Minn. was one of those injured Thursday night in the accident at George's Restaurant. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital Thursday and treated and released. He complained of his leg Friday morning and wouldn't walk on it. He was taken back to the hospital and an X-ray was taken of his leg and a hairline fracture was discovered in his shin bone. He now has a cast on his leg.

Aaron is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Kerhulas.
