The weather Tuesday: high 86, low 66, hum. 70 percent and by 7 a.m. Wednesday another .59 inches of rain had fallen.

The Wolverine Boosters Club will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Stearns Educational Center.

The Palmetto Statesman Barbershop Show comes to town Saturday night. Tickets are on sale at the Tryon Fine Arts Theater through Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon.

Tomorrow is official Steve Wyatt Day in Polk County. Wyatt, the county manager for the last three years, is leaving the county next week to take a job as assistant county manager of Catawba County.

An anonymous advertiser brought The Bulletin an interesting portrait of Wyatt and Polk County Solid Waste Manager David Draughn, who is also leaving the county for another job soon. Both portraits are in an ad in today's newspaper.

Lucy Christopher, postmistress of Lynn Post Office, steps lightly around her shop these days. Monday after waiting on a customer, she went back to her work station to continue boxing

"New Members" Show Open Aug. 5

Eleven artists will be featured in the Spartanburg Artists' Guild New Member Show, which opens Sunday, August 5, at the Spartanburg Arts Center.

A reception will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. that day. It is free and open to the public. New members include Irma P. Webb of Saluda.

The Shady Grove Band To Enliven Summer Social

Trust the Fine Arts Center to come up with an innovative bluegrass band to round off the day-long activities nostalgically called the Summer Social. On Saturday, August 11 at 7:30 p.m. TFAC will present the energetic "Shady Grove Band" in Sassoon Park.

Years ago a Summer Social would have concluded with folks gathered 'round the village green to listen to musicians playing soothing Strauss melodies or rousing Sousa marches in a Victorian bandstand, ladies' parasols bobbing to the lilt of the tunes. Well, in 1990 the conviviality's the same but you can leave your celluloid collars, straw skimmers, layered petticoats and feather fans in the attic steamer trunk. Just slip on your favorite shorts and T shirt and relax to the rhythms of the Shady Grove

Vining Grandchildren Provide Sweet Poem

The grandchildren of Seth and Bos Vining presented their grandparents a sentimental — and sweet — retirement gift recently.

Using candy to fill in the gaps, they wrote a poem honoring their grandparents upon retirement as active owners and operators of the Tryon Daily Bulletin.

Seth Vining retired April 27. Tomorrow will be Bos Vining's last day on the job.

Bos Vining started work in 1970 parttime, two days a week, and most recently has been the fulltime bookkeeper for the paper in addition to handling numerous other duties.

The Bulletin will be closed from noon to 1 p.m. Friday so the staff can treat Mrs. Vining to lunch.
