The weather Thursday: high 85, low 68, hum. 65 percent. By Friday at 7 a.m., .13 inches of rain had fallen.

The Polk County tax collectors are waiting for the supplemental tax bill forms to arrive before they send out this year's second tax notices.

You may recall that the Board of Education took the Board of Commissioners to court citing a lack of adequate funding. A jury of 12 Polk taxpayers agreed with the school board.

That's why county taxpayers will be receiving a second tax bill this year.

And on it will be printed: "1990 Supplemental Tax Bill, as mandated by the Superior Court." That message was decided upon last week on a motion by commissioner Henry Huntsinger, supported by Rachel Ramsey and Ken Faulkner. They want to be sure everyone knows that they didn't support the tax increase for schools.

Board members Jeannie Martin and John Edwards voted against adding the message to the tax bills. However, during the budget process they didn't necessarily support tax increases, either. They argued that the
