A sign on the window of Rainbow Audio Video store in Morehead City asks, "Iraq, how do you spell defeat?" The answer: "U. S. Marines."

Jordan's King Hussein was on the way to the United States from the Middle East Wednesday carrying a message for President Bush from Iraqi president Saddam Hussein. Bush said he didn't expect any quick solutions, but did expect a diplomatic solution would be possible once Iraq started to feel the effects of the world's economic sanctions.

David Rice, owner of Crossroads Trading Post in Taylorsville, a small town in Alexander County, took George Bush's plea for moderation in gas pricing to heart. He refused to

Spartanburg Methodist Signs Ty Stott

Ty Stott signed a grant and aid agreement to play baseball for Spartanburg Methodist College this week.

Polk County Schools athletic director Geoff Tennant said he believes it was Stott's hitting that caught the attention of Spartanburg Methodist Coach Lon Joyce.

Polk baseball coach Richard Gaddy said Stott hit around .500 all four years of playing baseball in Polk County. Gaddy said Stott hit seven homeruns last year, and only struck out once or twice all year long.

Stott played first base and pitched and made no defensive errors, Gaddy said.

"Ty is a particularly adept hitter," Tennant said. "I believe Joyce was very happy to sign him and expects him to make a contribution."

On hand for the signing ceremony were Ty with his parents, James and Peggy Stott, Wolverine baseball coach Jeff Wilson, SMC Coach Lon Joyce, and Tennant.
