The weather Wednesday: high 94, hum. 74 percent.

The next meeting of the Polk County Board of Commissioners will be held Tuesday night, instead of Monday, due to Labor Day. The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the courtroom at the courthouse in Columbus.

For all of you thrifty, environmentally conscious recyclers there will be curbside recycling in Tryon next Wednesday on the following streets: Aspen, Bacon, Beaver, Beech, Berry, Cleveland, Elm, Freeman Hill, Fox Trot, Grady, Livingston (East and West), Maple, Markham, McDonald, Oak, Palmer, Payner, Pine, Scriven, Spruce, and Tuckaway.

There will be live entertainment at the Pine Crest Inn tonight and Saturday night to kick-off the Labor Day weekend. Dorothy Dobbs, a "belter" from Jacksonville, Fla., will entertain one and all from 6 p.m. until late.

Also on Saturday night, the Polk County Republican Club is holding its annual picnic feast at Harmon Field in Tryon. For tickets, information or reservations call 859-9810.

Marijuana Found Deep In Lynn Woods

At 4 p.m. Thursday, Polk County Sheriffs deputies had been working two hours and had another hour of work ahead pulling up marijuana plants found in the woods behind Lynn.

"This was some of the prettiest we've seen," Sheriff Boyce Carswell said. "The plants were eight feet tall, bushed out and ready to bloom."

The plantings, deep in the woods between Hooker Road and River Road, were spotted by officers working in helicopters, Carswell said. The plantings were in small patches, in clearings in the woods spread out over a half a mile of terrain.

Carswell said there were no suspects at this time. Officers were pulling up the plants and transporting them to a waiting jeep on an old logging road, which then hauled the illegal contraband to a waiting pick-up truck.

Republicans Plan Barbeque Picnic

The Polk County Republican Party will hold a barbeque picnic featuring chicken and all the trimmings on Saturday, Oct. 13, 6 p.m. at Harmon Field in Tryon.

There will be a drawing for door prizes and candidates for county and state offices will be present to answer questions.

Lake Adger Land Deal Falls Through

Negotiations to buy the Champion Paper Co. property surrounding Lake Adger have fallen through, said Keith Carver of Carver Properties in Rutherfordton.

Carver had wanted to buy to the property to develop residential homesites on the lakefront, but he said negotiations fell apart during a session last Friday over the issue of how the financing would be structured.

"I can't tell you how I feel just now," Carver said.

Residents of the lake had been concerned that the development plans might spoil the natural beauty and quiet of Lake Adger, and hoped that perhaps a nature conservancy might purchase the property one day.

Emotion A Key In Polk-Landrum Game

"This will be one of those ball-games where it doesn't make any difference what anybody's got," said Polk County Wolverine coach Dennis Stokes Thursday.

The match-up between Polk County and the Landrum Cardinals will be played to a large degree on the emotion of the long-standing rivalry, Stokes said.

Landrum coach Arvie Bennett agreed.

"They (the Wolverines) beat Chesnee, so they have to be good," Bennett said. He said his team will be counting on strong performances from Jason Ayers and Gerald Whiteside, and "just doing what we're doing for the year."

Coach Stokes discounts the trouncing last week that the Cardinals took at the hands of the Chapman Panthers. "They will be up for us," Stokes said. "You never know what's going to happen."

The game will be played tonight at 8 p.m. at Harmon Field. If there were a postponement due to heavy rains, the game would be played on Saturday night.

Landrum Library

Landrum Branch Library will be closed for Labor Day on Monday, September 3, 1990.
