Cleaning out the In Basket:

Phyllis Cochrane of Hobe Sound, Fla., and a former nine-year resident of Tryon, sent an article on rising movie ticket prices from the Christian Science Monitor recently.

Most of the cost of a ticket, $5.40 out of a $6 admission price, for instance, goes to the film company, which is paying exorbitant star salaries, the story says. Cochrane said most movies today are made for teenagers, a clientele which does not overwhelm the Tryon Theater.

Mrs. Sarah A. Rickard of Greenville, S.C. recently sent a copy of a May, 1937 Bulletin. On the back is an advertisement for

Annual Crop Walk

The Annual C. W. Farrar Memorial Crop Walk is to be held on Sunday afternoon, October 21, 2:30, 1990. The six-mile walk will begin and end at First Baptist Church on Rutherford Street in Landrum.

CROP is the name given to local community hunger education and fund raising events sponsored by Church World Services.

Volunteer recruiters are needed from every church, school, Scouts, or any other organization that would desire to participate in the Landrum-Tryon area.

Each walker will be given a Walker's Sponsored Record Envelope by the recruiter to keep a record of donations by the sponsors. These donations may be given to the Hunger Relief Agency of your own denomination.

Sponsoring group of the Annual C. W. Farrar Memorial CROP walk is the Landrum Ministerial Association. Rev. Tom Wilkes, pastor of the Landrum United Methodist Church is president of the Landrum Ministerial Association. Contact person for this event is Ruth Farrar who is the CROP walk coordinator in the Landrum-Tryon area.

Anyone willing to serve as a recruiter is requested to make this known to your minister. — Reporter

The Lanier Library sponsors the Great Books programs in Tryon and welcomes anyone interested in joining a new group to check in at the front desk of the Library.
