The weekend weather: Friday, high 77, low 67, hum. 73%, and .15 inches of rain; Saturday, high 84, low 66, hum. 68%, and .05 inches of rain; and Sunday, high 82, low 57, hum. 65%.

Tryon resident Jim Lowry, a member of the N. C. Commission of Indian Affairs, vigorously opposed Gov. Jim Martin over a recent appointment.

Martin appointed Patricia Clark of Charlotte as the commission chairman, but Lowry and other members of the commission were unhappy that the governor had not consulted them.

Lowry called the governor's move "forceful and disgraceful."

"We have always placed a high value on Indian self-determination in this state," Lowry said. "And, we have fought to preserve that right."

Lowry's motion to vote on the appointment by secret ballot passed, but he said later he believed it was the commission's five white members who cast the deciding votes. He said they rarely attend meetings, and only came out to support the governor.

Do you have a Rin-tin-tin, Lassie, Benjie, Tramp, etc.? If so, make sure you bring him or her to the show and register for this class. Our judges for the show are Dr. Bebe Winstead and John Vining.

Entree fees are 25¢ per class or $2 for all ten classes. A rain date of Oct. 14 has been scheduled but we hope the rain does not fall on our Any and All Dog Show.

Man Falls 85 Feet Over Pearson's Falls

A 22-year-old Chesnee man, Donald Price, was hiking with a friend near Saluda when he decided to climb over a gate along the road and fell 85 feet over Pearson's Falls.

He apparently landed on a rock, Polk County EMS director Lesa Wilson said Monday. Both legs had compound fractures below the knees and he appeared to be bleeding internally as well since his blood pressure was low and dropping.

Wilson said Polk County EMS stabilized Price and carried him by ambulance to White Oak Condominiums where the Mission Air Medical Ambulance from Asheville was waiting. Price was then flown to Memorial Mission Hospital where he could get the attention of a neurosurgeon.

Wilson said she would be surprised if, after his fall, Price did not also have some spinal injuries. A spokesperson at Memorial Mission could not give any condition report on Price Monday.
