Wife In "High Spirits"

Lions Meet

Columbus Lions will meet tonight at 6:30 p.m. at the Western Steer in Columbus.

At the last meeting a camper from Columbus that spent a week at Camp Dogwood talked about her experiences. Being this was the first camper sponsored by the local club her talk gave them insight on the needs of future campers. Camp Dogwood is the North Carolina Lions Camp for the Blind, located in Sherrill's Ford on Lake Hartwell.

Supported by donations this camp gives a blind person the special things needed to be able to enjoy doing things they normally can't. Horseback riding, arts and crafts and water sports like boating and swimming are offered.

The club will be repairing the cross on Tryon Peak and hope to have it ready for the Christmas Season again this year.

The Candy day was a success and Columbus Lions wish to thank all who made it so. Your support gives us the desire to continue serving the community with all our projects: White Cane, Eye Bank, Free Scanning, The Cross, Camp Dogwood, Elida Home and Hosp. Equipment. — Reporter
