Resource Council To Meet

The Polk County Community Resource Council will meet on Tuesday, September 26, at the Emergency Medical Service Headquarters in Columbus.

The meeting will start at 7 p.m. EMS Headquarters is located in the basement of the Polk County Jail. Hosting the meeting will be EMS Director Lisa Wilson.

Organizations county-wide are invited to send representatives to Council meetings. The Resource Council meets every two months to identify and discuss community needs and locate resources.

For further information, call President Eloise Johnson at the Agricultural Extension Office in Columbus, 894-8218. — Reporter

Ornithologist Visits Amazon

Simon Thompson recently spent eight days on a study trip visiting the upper Amazon River region in Peru.

Thompson travelled to an area near Iquitos, Peru, to familiarize himself with the Amazon region before leading a trip for the Foothills Equestrian Nature Centre in Tryon. The FENCE trip is scheduled for November 10-23. At press time, there were still two spaces available on this upcoming expedition. For more information call Thompson at 704-859-9021. — Reporter

Purchase Lot

Larry and Vicky Siler of Naples, Italy have bought lot number 12 at Ridgeview Acres from Mr. and Mrs. William Taff of Palatine, Illinois. The Taffs had planned to retire here, but have had to change their plans because of health reasons.

Vicky Siler is a teacher at the American military base in Naples. Larry is a retired Air Force intelligence officer. When Vicky retires in another two or three years, they plan to build a house on their land. The Silers are outdoor enthusiasts and are looking forward to hiking on the bridle trails in the area.

Lynn Ulrey of Coldwell Banker Town and Country Realtors was the listing and selling agent.

Tryon Lions

Tyron Lions Club will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Western Steer Steakhouse in Columbus. Ellis Fincher will be in charge of the program.

Mrs. Swedenborg of Tryon has as her guests her granddaughter, Pamela Eppers and girlfriend, Wendy Gillen, both of Salt Lake City, Utah.
