Monday's weather: high 71, low 47, hum. 68%.

It was rainy Saturday - most everyone's DAY OFF. If you need a little cheering up, now that it's sunny outside and you're back at work, here's a few amusing thoughts:

These are some actual church bulletin announcements, submitted to us by a reader:

"This afternoon there will be a meeting in the south and north ends of the church. Children will be baptized at both ends.

Thursday at 5 p.m., there will be a meeting of the Little Mothers Club. All those wishing to become little mothers, please meet the minister in his study.

This being Easter Sunday, we will ask Mrs. Johnson to come forward and lay an egg on the altar.

The ladies of the church have cast off clothing of every kind and they may be seen in the church basement on Friday afternoon."

And another reader submitted the following practical advice for Senior Citizens, written by a retired Methodist minister:

"Every Senior Citizen should have a small child nearby. They are the only ones who can remove

Fairchild Sculptures Win At Exposition

Lee Fairchild of Columbus entered five wildfowl sculptures in the Sculptures and Designs in Wood exposition held in Greenville, S.C. Memorial Auditorium last weekend.

He won first place for a belted kingfisher, first place for a pair of mourning doves, first place for a composition of three Bob Whites, second place for a Saw-Whet Owl and second place for a Tree Swallow.

There were 156 wildfowl sculptures entered in the competition in which the Belted Kingfisher won best of show.

Mr. Fairchild was a judge and featured wildfowl carver at the same show in 1989. He has been carving for 11 years and teaches carving at Tryon Crafts. He is a member of the Ward Foundation,

Tournament Of Bands Great Success

The 12th annual Harrison Elliott Tournament of Bands, sponsored by the Landrum High School Distinctive Regiment Band was held last Saturday with approximately 1200 band students participating from different schools from S.C. and N.C.

The Landrum High Marching Band will compete in competition Saturday at Chesnee, S.C.

Traffic Interruption

Terry Brothers Construction Company will begin replacement/extension of some 4200' of 8" sewer in the Woodland Park-Glenwalden Circle area on Tuesday, Oct. 2. During this period of time, Glenwalden Circle will be closed to all thru traffic. Every attempt will be made to provide access to each residence at all times. Upon completion of the project, the entire roadway will be repaved.

Thank you for your patience during this period of inconvenience.

Correction

The Axia Lee who was listed as serving 9 straight points in the 2nd Polk County Lady Wolverines Volleyball game against NCSD is actually Aixa Lee Belville, a new student at Tryon High School who came here with her family from Puerto Rico.
