The weather Tuesday: high 84, low 59, hum. 78 percent. There was a trace of rain by 7 a.m. Wednesday morning. After such a dry September, many were rooting for more than a trace.

Tryon High School is holding its open house for parents tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The Polk County Planning Commission meets tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the county courthouse in Columbus. This is the board that is studying sign ordinances and other matters pertaining to planning and zoning. If you want to follow these issues, follow this board. Don't wait until matters reach the Board of Commissioners.

The Polk County Public Library Book Sale will be held this Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon in the library garage.

The merchants of Columbus will hold a Sidewalk Sale and Arts & Crafts Show Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in honor of Columbus Day.

There are many volunteers working to build up a new tradition for the Tryon area — that is the Tryon Hounds Fall Steeplechase. Few of us realize what an effort this project

Southern Art Program

The American Assn. of University Women has finalized plans for the appearance of Robert M. Hicklin, Jr. at Isothermal Community College on Saturday, Oct. 27 at 4 p.m.

Mr. Hicklin, a Spartanburg art dealer, specializes in art relating to the south. He has counselled over 50 museums and institutions and 20 corporate collections as well as aided numerous individuals with development of their collections.

For his program at Isothermal Community College he will bring some of the paintings from his collections as well as his most recently published book, "Look Away: Reality and Sentiment in Southern Art."

This program will benefit the ASUW Educational Foundation Program for graduate studies, and as such, your donations of $7.50 will be tax deductible.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Tickets may be obtained from Virginia Clark 859-5766, and AAUW member, or at the door. — Reporter

Horne Arrived

Air Force Staff Sgt. Kenneth R. Horne, a satellite communication systems equipment technician, has arrived for duty at RAF Chicksands, England.

Horne is the son of Joyce A. Mason of Inman, S. C. and Burdette C. Horne of Campobello, S. C. He is a 1979 graduate of Landrum High School.

Pruitt - Powell

Mr. and Mrs. James Pruitt of Landrum announce the engagement of their daughter, Laurie to Scotty Powell, son of Jim Powell Jr. of Duncan and Martha Bridges of Startex.

The couple will be married Oct. 19th at Grace Baptist Church in Landrum.

Miss Pruitt is a graduate of Grace Christian School and attending Spartanburg Technical College. She is employed by South Carolina Elastic Co. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Earl Pruitt and the late Mr. Pruitt of Landrum and the late Mrs. Jesse Hinson of Tryon and the late Luther Floyd of New Orleans.

Mr. Powell was a graduate of Byrnes High School and is employed with Lanier Express in Greer. He is the grandson of Mrs. Jim Powell Sr. and the late Mr. Powell and Mrs. Paul Guy and the late Mr. Guy from Startex.

Tootsie Roll Campaign Underway

The Knights of Columbus, Tryon Council No. 9492 will conduct its fourth annual Tootsie Roll campaign to help area mentally handicapped citizens this week and weekend.

The project is called Operation LAMB, Least Among My Brothers.

The Knights will be at Bi-Lo in Landrum today through Saturday, at Revco in Columbus today through Saturday, and at Food Lion in Columbus on Saturday.

The Tootsie Rolls are given away and donations are appreciated. All money given, less the cost of the Tootsie Rolls, is given to organizations that support and work with area mentally handicapped citizens.

During the past three years, the following organizations have received funds from the Knights of Columbus generated by Operation LAMB: the Polk County Sheltered Workshop, the Charles Lea Center (a residential program in Landrum), and Polk County's preschool handicapped program.

The Knights of Columbus look forward to meeting you in Columbus and Landrum this week.
