

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 3, 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N. C. 28722
11 nov 90

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Founded Jan 31, 1928 by Seth M. Vining
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Jeffrey A. Byrd, Editor and Publisher

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

36 Pages Today

Vol. 63 — No. 183

TRYON, N. C. 28782

Friday, October 19, 1990

20¢ Per Copy

The weather Wednesday: high 78, low 49, hum. 77 percent. By 7 a.m. Thursday, a half an inch of rain had fallen.

Dave Collins of Lake Lanier said a young black bear, six to eight months old, ambled across West Lakeshore Drive a bit too casually yesterday as Dave was driving home. He had to step on the brakes.

Dave urges motorists around the lake to be extra cautious for awhile now until the little guy learns a bit more about the dangers of sharing his environment with humans.

How lucky we are to live in a place which he would consider sharing with us. Does he like to water ski?

The World Federalist Association of Western Carolinas will meet for breakfast in the Mural Room at the Fine Arts Center in celebration of United Nations Day Saturday at 8 a.m. The public is invited.

The Tryon Horse Trials will be held at FENCE Saturday, and Kathryn O'Steen asks that all cross country judges meet at the Main House at 9 a.m. "sharp." Kathryn says this will be an outstanding spectator event, with

Continued On Back Page

'High Spirits' Remembered

While much attention is being paid, naturally, to the next Tryon Little Theater production, "Steel Magnolias," let the public not forget the 1990-91 season opener "High Spirits." Although belated, here is a tribute to its excellence.

"High Spirits" had a stage full of attractions. Johanna Linch, as Madame Arcati, was superb frolicking about in outlandish costumes and rendering lunatic ballads. Her "Bicycle Song" got an improbable musical off to a rousing start, and her paean to her Ouija board was hilarious.

Christine Fitch, handsome and vivid, as the impatient second wife, displayed her superlative voice at its best. Her opening song, "Was She Prettier Than I?," will long be remembered, as will her duets with Dean Campbell, "Where Is The Man I Married?" and "If I Know You."

Dean Campbell surpassed himself as the frazzled husband with one wife too many. In his first role as a full-fledged musical comedy leading man, he set a standard that will be hard to match. His duets with Donna Shelley met with enthusiastic audience response: "Forever and A Day," and "I Know Your Heart."

Donna Shelley, a newcomer to the TLT stage, was a hit as the mischievous, gauzy, restless ectoplasm of a first wife. Her "Faster Than Sound" and "Home Sweet Heaven" showed

Continued On Back Page

New Town Manager Hired In Tryon

Matthew Lloyd Dolge will be come the Tryon Town Manager starting on Monday, Mayor Bob Neely announced Thursday.

Matthew was born in Westport, CT in 1964 and moved to Winston Salem, N.C. in 1966 with his family. Following his graduation from R. J. Reynolds High School in 1982, Matthew attended Appalachian State University where he graduated in 1986 with a B.S. Degree in Political Science with emphasis on Municipal Management.

Upon graduation, he served two internships in the towns of Pilot Mountain and Beach Mountain, both in North Carolina.

In 1987, Matthew accepted the position of town manager of the town of Jonesville, N.C. with a

Continued On Back Page

Revival At Emmanuel Baptist

Revival services will be held at Emmanuel Baptist Church on Fox Mountain Road one half mile off Hwy. 108 at Columbus starting Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and continuing through Wednesday night, 7:30 each evening.

Rev. Hubert Street pastor of Coopers Gap Baptist Church will be the guest speaker.

Homecoming Tonight At Landrum High

It has been Homecoming Week at Landrum High School.

Each day this week was designated as a particular "dress up" day. There was a career day, sweatshirt day, twin day and a red and white day.

The annual homecoming parade was held Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. and students voted for homecoming king and queen on Wednesday and Thursday.

Tonight there will be a pep rally, and at 8 p.m. Landrum will play Calhoun Falls. At half-time, there will be a ceremony crowning the homecoming queen. After the game, a homecoming dance will be held in the gym.

Football Tonight

The Polk County Wolverines put it all on the line tonight against conference rival Hendersonville at 8 p.m. at Harmon Field.