Hospice on Radio

The Polk County Hospice message is soon to be carried locally on National Public Radio. A program interviewing Hospice president Larry Heath and Hospice chaplain Claude Broach will be broadcast Friday, Dec. 7th on WNCW-FM (88.7) at 8:35 in the morning.

It is well to keep in mind that Hospice offers care at home, without charge, for persons terminally ill, regardless of age, color, creed or ability to pay. Anyone willing to lend support to this county-wide program may send checks to P. O. Box 722, Tryon, N. C. 28782. The Hospice office in Tryon Town Hall may be reached weekday mornings on 859-2270. — Hospice Reporter
