The weather Wednesday: high 44, low 27, and hum. 68 percent. It was sleeting Thursday morning, but turned to rain by midday.

Curbside recycling in Tryon next Wednesday will serve the following streets: Aspen, Bacon, Beaver, Beech, Berry, Cleveland, Elm, Freeman Hill, Fox Trot, Grady, Livingston, Maple, Markham, McDonald, Oak, Palmer, Payne, Pine, Scriven, Spruce and Tuckaway.

Today, the Curb Reporter completes the series of excerpts of the remarks made recently to the Tryon Rotary by Patrick Oliver-Kelley. Oliver-Kelley is an investment banker with extensive experience overseas.

In his conclusion, Oliver-Kelley describes those countries he believes would be the "winners" in a Gulf war, and urges the multi-national coalition to take action sooner than later. He believes war is inevitable.

Of course, the Bulletin will give a forum for differing opinions.

Oliver-Kelley's remarks:

"The first winner is Kuwait — it will return to our maps. Is an economically liberal country which by that liberalism was a threat to Iraq's isolation. It was

Hole-In-One At Tryon CC

Tom Teal shot his first Hole-In-One on the 18th hole at Tryon Country Club on Friday, Dec. 21. He was playing with Herb Michener, and to add to the thrill, the club professional, Cecil Turner just finished up on 18 and saw the ball trickle into the hole.

Tom missed making his hole in one on his 80th birthday which was on the next day, Dec. 22. Congratulations to Tom on two great events!
