The weather Tuesday: high 45, low 35, hum. 80 percent, and .10 inches of rain fell.

The Carolina Camera Club was treated Tuesday night to a showing of Davis Kirby's slide show, "My Tryon." With photographs taken "in fits and starts" over a decade, Kirby leads viewers over the seasons and through the woods, to his house and to mountaintops.

It was interesting to me, one whose view each day is of a computer screen more often than a tree or flower, to note the high percentage of the show which was devoted to nature and out-of-doors pursuits — hikes to collect boxwood bows for Christmas from the old Ryx Haven property below Tryon Peak, hikes up Rocky Spur, or into Pisgah National Forest to "plant" fingerling trout in sparkling streams.

The flora of these Southern mountains were another main theme in Kirby's Tryon. And the Bulletin was featured as the string which ties all these mountain hideaways together.

Mid-term exams are over today at Tryon High School. How about a celebratory hike up to

Horse Insurance

During last year's horse seminar the subject of liability laws that affect horse owners surfaced. It seemed like a major concern to many of the participants. Unfortunately, we were not equipped to answer these questions, although Dr. Bob Mowery, NCSU Equine Specialist, did help us understand the magnitude of this problem.

In this day-in-age of lawsuits, we all would like to know where we stand in case of trouble. It is important to be responsible horse producers in that we try to prevent potential trouble. But no matter the "ounce of prevention" that potentially damaging "pound of trouble" weighs heavily on our mind!

As you are probably aware of from past articles, the 1991 Foothills Regional Horse Seminar on January 17 and 18 does plan to address the subject of "Liability Laws Affecting Horse Owners" to be presented by Nathan Garren, Attorney At

Indoor Track Meet

The Wolverine men's indoor track team recently traveled to the University of North Carolina campus for their first qualifying meet of the season. Teams from all classifications 1A-4A throughout the state attended the two-day competition.

Coach Alan Peoples stated that the team did well against the larger schools. He also commented on the outstanding performances of Gaetan van Wijck in the 300-yard run and the two-mile relay, Seth Peoples in the two-mile run, Chad Lanford in the one-mile run, and Tyrone Twitty in the 60-yard dash.

Wolverines participated in the following events:

300 Yard Run — Gaetan van Wijck (34.4), Chip Twitty (39.12), Kip Stokes (29.16)

600 Yard Run — Anthony Womack (1:55.45), Clint Lawrence (1:50.12)

1000-Yard Run — Brendan Palmer (3:03), Mike Chaffin (3:05), Scott Culbreth (2:55).

1-Mile Run — Chad Lanford (5:08), Seth Peoples (5:12), Travis Gilbert (5:30), Scott Culbreth (5:37), Jason Bond (5:52), Danny Ledford (5:58), Brendan Palmer (6:02), Brent Edwards (6:31), Anthony Womack (7:07).

60-Yard Dash — Tyrone Twitty (7.46), Alfred Miller (7.48)

2-Mile Run — Seth Peoples (11:03), Jason Bond (12:30), Danny Ledford (12:45).
