O. P. Earle Art On Display

Students from O. P. Earle Elementary School have on display at the Landrum Branch Library various artwork done under the direction of art teacher, Sherri Hoover.

Sixth graders Mindy Champion, Luke Pauley, Steven Yon, Cassie Hyder, Travis Ormand, and Christopher Landrum, have made colorful and dramatic looking dragons in paper-mache.

Fifth graders Tola Sun, Amber Smith, Tim Ballew, Tammy Edwards, Rachel Moore, and Angie Lawrence have woven bright, festive pennants.

Three artists, Josh Pryor and Tim Ballew, both 5th graders, and Kimberly Walker, 3rd grade, have strong, vibrant paintings on display that show great promise and talent.

All these students are talented and creative and deserve support. The public is invited to view their work during regular opening hours.
