The weekend weather: Friday high 62, low 41, hum. 65 percent and .07 inches of rain fell; Saturday, high 62, low 36, hum. 83 percent; Sunday, high 58, low 38, hum. 95 percent and by 7 a.m. Monday .77 inches of rain had fallen.

We mentioned last week a quirk of nature found by Demus Chapman - a board with a knot resembling a monkey's face. Well Ernest Kellogg dropped by after that to show off an equally odd board. His was cut from one of the biggest Sumac trees in central Wisconsin in 1962 and was a Christmas present from his father. The knotty wood portrays a bulldog face, and recalls Kellogg's boyhood days.

Children in grades one through nine in Polk County began taking the California Achievement Tests Monday morning. Testing will continue all week. Analysis of the results will continue for years.

Some radio listeners have called to say they are unhappy with the change in format at WSPA-FM. If you also wish for a return to "easy listening," they suggest you write to Larry

Jones Listed In Guarded Condition

Jeffrey Jones, 18, of Tryon, was still in the Intensive Care Unit at Rutherford Hospital Monday, listed in guarded condition.

A hospital spokesman said his condition was unchanged from the previous day.

Jones was the passenger in a Chevrolet pick-up truck last Wednesday when the truck struck a tree. The driver, Charles Bryan Lookadoo, also 18 and of Tryon, was killed instantly.

The state trooper who investigated the accident said Friday that Jones was to be moved by helicopter to Charlotte. But his condition was apparently such that doctors chose not to move him.

Winter Athletes Honored at Banquet

The members of the men's and women's basketball teams, men's and women's indoor track teams, the wrestling team, and the cheerleading squads for basketball were the guests of the Polk County Schools Athletic Department at the winter sports banquet. The banquet was held on March 13 at 7 p.m. at the Tryon Youth Center.

The banquet was prepared by Mrs. Sarah Edwards, Child Nutrition Director for the Polk County Schools, and Mrs. Melissa Allwood who is the food service manager at Tryon Elementary School. After the meal which consisted of a tossed salad, hamburger steak, baked potato, rolls and cobbler, each squad was individually recognized by their respective coaches and presented their certificates of participation.

A number of student/athletes were paid special recognition by their teams as they received various awards given by the teams for outstanding performances:

Women's Jr. Varsity Basketball Most Valuable Player - Minda Howze; Coaches Award - Amber Cole; Coaches Award - Blythe Edwards.

Men's Jr. Varsity Basketball Best Defensive Player - Otis Miller; Coaches Award - William Rogers; Special award to recognize conference cham-
