The weather Thursday: high 77, low 48, hum. 78 percent. Oh, frajious day. Calloo! Cal-lais!

Have you ever wished you had a copy of a magazine article someone mentioned, but thought you'd have to drive to a nearby city to find a copy. Well, wish no longer. The magazine you're looking for is very likely on the library shelves at the Polk Campus of Isothermal Community College in Columbus. The ICC library carries 85 magazines - from Discover to American History Illustrated, from Audubon to Car and Driver, from Conservationist to Consumer Reports.

They also carry ten daily newspapers, from Atlanta to New York.

The Little Miss and Mister Polk County Contest being sponsored by the Polk Jaycees has been extended through April. For more information, call Anne Crowell at 859-5800 between 4 and 5 p.m. weekdays.

Special Arts Festival

Radio Station WTYN's Community News & Views program at 9:30 Tuesday morning, March 26, will feature a presentation by Polk Central School teacher, "Bo" Atwood on the upcoming Second Annual Very Special Art Festival on May 3rd at FENCE

Like the Special Olympics, this Festival is an opportunity for the handicapped and disabled children to celebrate and share their accomplishments in drama, music, literature and the visual arts.

Very Special Arts is an international organization dedicated to enriching the lives of children, youths, and adults with disabilities. It was founded in 1974 as an educational affiliate of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Performances, exhibitions, workshops and training sessions are conducted through Very Special Arts programs in all 50 states. Forty nations around the globe have affiliated with this programs.

Very Special Arts welcomes the participation and involvement of interested individuals and organizations. Additional funds to expand the various programs in music, dance and other art forms will enable the staff and visiting artists to encourage and develop these talents.

Further information can be obtained by calling Terry McEntire at Stearns Education center at 894-3051.
