In the continuing saga of natural oddities, Van V. Dye of Columbus brought out a walking stick he owns last week for our inspection. It has a face on the handle. Mr. Dye collects walking sticks as a hobby. His collection consists of 400 sticks from 12 different states, one from Canada and one from Portugal. Over 50 kinds of wood are represented in his collection.

The Tryon Hounds will meet at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow at Fairview Grain Bins.

The Kiwanis Travelogue Series continues Thursday night at 8 p.m. at the Tryon Fine Arts Center. The film to be shown "attempts to dispel the myth of a sunken continent and in so doing, we discover that the real story of Lost Atlantis is a hundred times more mysterious and fascinating than any myth or legend." For more information, call 859-9016.

The wedding is planned for April 20, 1991 at the Hickory Grove Baptist Church.

Senator Lists Info On Jobs In Kuwait

On March 14, Senator Robert C. Carpenter released information which may help those interested in getting jobs or contracting business in connection with the estimated 100 billion dollar task of rebuilding war-ravaged Kuwait.

"There's been a lot of talk about the massive effort it's going to take to rebuild Kuwait, and our office has been asked by many in the district how they might become involved," Carpenter stated. The Kuwaiti government says it will favor U.S. companies as it begins its rebuilding program.

According to information received by Carpenter's office from Sen. Helm's office in Washington, the Dept. of Commerce has established the Gulf Reconstruction Center to serve as an information clearinghouse for businesses. The Center number is: 202-377-5767.

The Army Corps of Engineers is also handling much of the contracting for the rebuilding of Kuwait's infra-structure. Their Wilmington office lists the following numbers: Individuals Seeking Employment 703-665-3935. Contractors Seeking Design Work 703-665-3989. Contractors Seeking Construction Work 703-665-3683.

For more details, contact Carpenter's Raleigh office Monday evenings, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at 919-733-5881.
