The weather Thursday: high 76, low 59, hum. 66 percent. By 7 a.m. Friday 1.35 inches of rain had fallen. There were tornado watches in effect and some light flooding was reported in Columbus.

Awhile back we reported that area listeners were disappointed when WSPA Radio dropped its "easy listening." One area listener wrote to Larry Alverson, general manager of WSPA, and here's what he had to say:

"WSPA-FM has changed to an adult music format of the 90s. LITE FM 98.9 is adult oriented music, a format presenting the best soft contemporary hits blended to satisfy an adult audience. I am sorry your are dissatisfied with the lack of instrumentals, but as they become more difficult to find and less popular to listen to, we must progress with the times."

These young whipper snappers just keep changing everything, don't they?

A new Habitat house will be dedicated at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 7. The home of the Santos Contreras is at 350 Spivey Creek Road in Landrum.

Press Broken

It was Good Friday, and the staff was hoping to finish up early to begin the holiday weekend.

That's when the Bulletin's press broke down. The impression arm simply cracked.

John Lawrence and his staff at the Landrum News Leader have agreed to print the Bulletin on their web press - on newsprint paper - until the press repairman from Georgia can visit and make the repairs.

New Arrival

Recycling For Landrum

Prospects for establishing recycling centers in Landrum-sponsored by the city of Spartanburg County, or both, will be discussed at the Friday, April 5th meeting of the Landrum Civic League.

James Ashmore, who has been spearheading local efforts to encourage recycling of paper, glass and plastics, will report on current activities and developments.

The public is encouraged to attend the meeting, at 3 p.m. at the Landrum Civic Center.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Eleanor Pierce, Marquerite Huggins and Betty Schuette.

Landrum Storyhour

The second session of the Tenth Annual Reading Tournament will be held at 3:30 on Tuesday, April 2 at Landrum Branch Library.

Teams from O.P. Earle, New Prospect and Tryon Elementary will compete to determine the winner who will represent the Landrum Library at the county wide tournament later in April.

Students are quizzed on a selection of books that they have been required to read. Books such as The Secret Garden, How To Eat Fried Worms, and Charlotte's Web are only three of the titles to read for this part of the tournament.

The public is invited to attend. Call 457-2218 for further information.
