The Easter weekend weather: Friday, high 64, low 53, hum. 50 percent and by 7 a.m. 1.35 inches of rain fell; Saturday, high 54, low 40, hum. 52 percent and by 7 a.m. 3.55 inches of rain fell; Sunday, high 61, low 36, hum. 52 percent.

Without the deluge over the weekend, Robert Dedmond reports that March would have had less rain than average. As it ended up, 9.02 inches of rain fell in March, 1.88 inches more than average. Nevertheless, the precipitation to date in 1991 is 16.8 inches, 1.18 inches less than the average. Last year by this time, we had a surplus of 8.73 inches above the average.

The Polk County Historical Association Inc. will meet today at 2:30 p.m. at Stearns Educational Center. Kathleen Cardwell Culbreth will give the history of Bethlehem Methodist Church in Mill Spring.

The Green Ruritans will hold an all-you-can-eat breakfast Saturday, April 6 at the Green Creek Community Building. For $4, between 6:30 and 10 a.m., you can have your fill of sausage, pancakes, bacon, eggs, grits, biscuits and beverage.

Area Sports

The Polk County Wolverine women's track team will travel to Hendersonville for meets today and Thursday at 4 p.m.

Three Make H-J Basketball Teams

Benji Smith and Kevin Atkins of Landrum were named to the Spartanburg Herald-Journal All-Academic basketball team Sunday.

Smith, a 6-foot-2 senior starter at forward, averaged 8 points per game and maintained a 3.78 grade point average.

Atkins, a 5-foot-10 senior starter at guard, averaged 6.3 points and led the Cardinals in 3-point goals with 32. He has a 3.62 grade point average.

James Henderson of Landrum was named to the Herald-Journal All-Area boys basketball team.

Henderson, at 6-foot, is the smallest member of the all-area team but he was also the area's top scorer. He averaged 22.8 points and grabbed 7.9 rebounds a game. He led the Cardinals to a 17-10 record and in the state Class 1A play-offs.

A 57 percent shooter from the floor and a 65 percent free throw shooter, Henderson scored over 1,000 points during his career.
