The weather Tuesday: high 75, low 37, hum. 38 percent.

It was Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dedmond's 53rd anniversary Wednesday! They clearly passed the 47th year itch.

Tryon's Folly has sold out for Saturday night. Tickets remain, however, for the Sunday matinee.

The Polk County Board of Education will convene early Monday night, at 5:45 p.m., to view brick panels for the new high school building. The regular meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

A photograph of Stoney Lamar of Saluda appears in the Spring 1991 issue of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority magazine. Lamar is shown giving a demonstration of Multiple Axis Turning during the American Association of Woodturners convention at Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts in Gallinburg, Tenn. The sorority founded the camp.

Stoney's father was a director of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross and was a graduate of Tryon High School.

Speaking of magazines, there are extra copies of the State available at The Tryon Daily Bulletin and at the Tryon Ther-

Musical At Seventh Day

O Me, O My, O Nehemiah! is a musical on how to rebuild a career, a business, a marriage, a relationship, a life. Nehemiah is a textbook on the value of holding on to your dreams when other people are laughing at you.

The program of Nehemiah will be presented at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Tryon SDA church on Saturday, April 6 by the Columbus SDA School choir. The presentation will be in the Roy L. Morgan Community Service Center gymnasium. All are welcome to stay for the weekly potluck after the service.

The school choir is directed by Mrs. Linda Herman and accompanied by Ron Brown.

Habitat Dedication Includes Harvey Tribute

The program for the dedication of Thermal Belt Habitat-for-Humanity's 16th house, to be held Sunday, April 7 at 2:30 p.m., has been announced by B.G. "Woody" Woodham, president, and will include a special memorial to Fred P. Harvey.

Gilbert "Gib" Edson, associate regional director for Habitat's South Atlantic Region, will be the principal speaker when the Santos Contreras family's (Continued On Back Page)

Columbus Police Make Drug Arrests

Columbus Police Officer Chris Abril was off-duty when he stumbled across evidence which led to a drug bust Tuesday.

Lloyd Dean Clayton, 64, of Butter Street, Landrum, and Theresa Diane Williams, 26, of Landrum were arrested by Columbus police Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. at the Days Inn Motel in Columbus and charged with felony trafficking in cocaine, according to Columbus Police Chief Billy Stepp.

The Polk County Sheriff's Department and Tryon Police Department assisted.

Abril was helping to clean a room at the Days Inn Motel in Columbus at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday when he found a bottle believed to have been used for holding crack cocaine.

Abril called Chief Stepp who did a chemical field test on the bottle that showed traces of cocaine.

The officers learned from the motel operators that the former occupants of the room where the crack bottle was found had only switched rooms and were still in residence at the motel.

The officers obtained a search warrant from the magistrate and went back at 5:30 p.m. to the room where the suspects were believed to be staying.

"We got a master key and tried to open the door, but the door was locked with the upper lock," Stepp said. The officers (Continued On Back Page)
