The weather Thursday: high 66, low 41, hum. 66 percent, and by 7 a.m. .10 inches of rain had fallen.

We have appreciated the letters and many personal comments we have received over the last two weeks in answer to our questions about printing court results in The Bulletin.

The clear opinion of the community is that this is a public service it wants to have provided. As far as how people handle this knowledge once provided, we were advised to let the chips fall where they may.

So be it, then. We are glad to provide the service. But here are two ground rules:

First, the court results will be printed in The Bulletin in full. No names included in the court docket listing will be left out. Second, the listing will be printed in smaller type, primarily as a space-saving device.

Be good out there.

Dr. Homar A. Beal, the owner of a Welsh corgi dog, brought us a newspaper clipping recently defending the breed. Corgis have the "hot dog"

Thermal Belt BPW Meets Mon.

The Thermal Belt Business and Professional Women Organization will meet Monday, April 8 at Brannon's at 7 p.m.

Ellen Cantrell will discuss interior design and offer decorating ideas. Mrs. Cantrell, an Interior Designer, owns Green River Interiors in Rutherfordton and teaches courses in interior design at Isothermal Community College.

Mrs. Cantrell and her husband, Gene, acquired the Green River Plantation in Polk County in 1987 and then began restoring the 42-room house that was built in the early 1800's. On December 1 the Cantrells opened 25 rooms, foyers, and hallways in the house to the public. The house became available for tours by appointment January 13.

Anyone interested in attending the April meeting may contact Ruth Ann Arledge at 859-6519 for reservations.

C. Morgan and S. Shipley

Morgan-Shipley

Cynthia Ann Morgan and Stewart Michael Shipley, both of Chattanooga, will be married May 19 at the home of the bride's other near Columbus.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of Mrs. Lila F. Morgan and the late Dr. Roy L. Morgan. She received an associate degree in nursing from Southern College of Seventh-Day Adventists at Collegedale, Tenn. A registered nurse and paramedic, she works as an emergency room charge nurse at Parkridge Hospital in Chattanooga.

Mr. Shipley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Shipley of Chattanooga. He is a graduate of Ooltewah High School, has served in the U.S. Marine Corps, and is a captain in the Tri-Community Volunteer Fire Department. He is employed by G&M, a family-owned construction company.

Attends Conference

Stephanic Morgan, a student at Tryon High School, recently attended the Converse Leadership Program at Converse College in Spartanburg, S. C. Now in its 12th year, the weekend conference featured leaderships skills training and personal development workshops for 150 high school juniors from 8 southern states. Program participants were nominated by their high school guidance counselors.

The program, sponsored by the Converse College Alumnae Assn., is part of an ongoing college mission to develop women leaders of all ages.

Stephanic is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of Landrum.

Wildflower Walks At FENCE

Wildflower walks at the Foothills Equestrian Nature Center are scheduled for Wednesdays from 10 to noon during the spring and fall seasons. FENCE botanist Phil Nisbet leads the walks, and the next one will be Wednesday, April 10.

Nisbet says there will be plenty of trilliums to be seen, as well as violets and the flowering trees and many other species. Everyone is invited to meet at the Trail Shelter at 10 a.m. next Wednesday. There is no charge for these walks.
