Jim Cochran of the Polk County Emergency Management department asks that anyone living on a private road please return their road naming questionnaire form to his office at P.O. Box 308, Columbus, N.C. 28722.

A reader submitted the following poem, written by an anonymous author:

A Little Mixed Up

*Just a line to say I'm living,
That I'm not among the dead,
Tho' I'm getting more forgetful
and more mixed up in the head.*

*For sometimes I can't remember,
When I stand at the foot of the stair,
If I must go up for something,
Or if I've just come down from there.*

*And before the frig' so often
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I just put the food away,
or Have I come to take some out?*

*And, then there's times when it is dark out,
With my night cap on my head,
I don't know if I'm retiring - or just getting out of bed.*

*So, if it's my turn to write you,
There's no need in getting*

Tournament Money Stays In County

The 3rd Annual Kiwanis Golf For Youth tournament has already raised over $2,000, before the first golfer tees off.

The deadline for player applications is Friday, April 26. Applications are available from any Kiwanian, at local golf courses, and at The Tryon Daily Bulletin office.

The 18-hole, Captain's Choice tournament will be played Monday, April 29 at Red Fox Country Club.

Businesses from across the community have signed on as sponsors of the Tryon Kiwanis Club's annual fundraiser.

"Even in uncertain economic times, local industry leaders, merchants and financial institution officers have offered their support of the youths in the area," said Carl Wharton, chairman of the tournament committee.

Wharton said not only do all the profits of the tournament go to youth programs, but all the money stays in the area.

Some of the Kiwanis youth projects include Terrific Kids, a personal achievement award program in the elementary schools; Invent America; Super Saturday; high school Key Clubs and scholarships.

In addition, Kiwanis works with 4-H, little league, soccer, and Boy Scouts, Wharton said.

Wolverine Soccer

After taking a 7-0 beating from Asheville Christian Academy the first time they met, the Wolverine Soccer team was able to hold them to three goals Saturday afternoon, falling 3-0.

Asheville Christian Academy led 1-0 until the middle of the second half. Polk County only had two substitutes Saturday so Asheville Christian Academy was able to wear them down and score two goals late in the game.

Coach Preston said Jennifer McConnell did a super job in the goal, recording 18 saves. He commented that the girls played hard and began talking to each other on the field. The Wolverines discovered they could dribble and pass on offense. Coach Preston was pleased with their efforts.

The Wolverine Soccer team travels to Brevard Wednesday, April 14.

Youth Corps Project Planned In Polk Co.

They may have dropped out of high school and have no job, but if area planners reach their goals several of those same youths may soon be starting up companies in Polk County.

The Appalachian Regional Commission has awarded Polk a $14,300 grant for a youth corps project.

The grant will be administered by the Isothermal Planning and Development Commission (IPDC) and the Region C Private Industry Council (PIC). Kay Foster and Mike McCue are Polk's representatives on the PIC.

Larry Brown, the IPDC staff member heading up the program, said his staff is looking at the demand for services in Polk County and hoping to find a niche for a new, youth-operated enterprise.

He said a company specializing in winterization of homes is one possibility being considered.

As part of the youth corps project, youngsters between the ages of 16 and 21 are paid on an hourly basis both while they work to get their General Equivalency Degree (GED), business courses and job skill training, and while they work on a project. Class work equals about 20 percent of the paid hours, Brown said.

Brown said the Polk grant will provide enough to pay wages to about three to six par-
