Handicapped Project Open For Inspection

The Polk County IDEA, Title VI, Part B Education of the Handicapped Act for 1991-92 is open for inspection for any interested party at the Polk County Education Center, 202 East Mills St., Columbus, N.C.

The project is open for inspection April 23-30, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

For additional information, contact Terry W. McEntire, assistant superintendent for pupil services, at 894-3051.

Card Collection On Display

On display in the Lanier Library showcase is Martha Graves' collection of playing cards. The colorful exhibit features a collection of all sorts of cards—giant playing cards, miniature cards (doll house size), round cards, and crooked cards.

There are beautiful cards from the Orient, each card with a different Oriental print. There are the strange and mysterious Tarot cards, and most interesting of all—"Talking" cards which offer a unique way to communicate with the inhabitant of Tokyo.

Polk Leads In Wachovia Contest

Polk County High School has taken the lead following the winter sports season in Wachovia Trophy competition in the Appalachian 1-A Conference. Polk earned 24 points, paced by a first-place finish in wrestling for a total of 49.

Hendersonville is second with 44 points. Edneyville is third with 42 points, followed by Rosman with 39.

The Wachovia Trophy recognizes high schools that have the best overall sports programs for boys and girls within their conferences. In most conferences, points are awarded based on participation and standings in conference play. Points are tallied after the fall, winter and spring sports seasons.
